

Today

at The University of Arizona Museum of Art I will...

- 1 Many artists create paintings that tell a story. Find an image with people in it and describe what they look like. Can you tell a story about these people?
- 2 Choose any two works of art that you see in the gallery. What are two ways that they are different? What are two ways they are similar?
- 3 Sometimes a work of art can look different depending on how you look at it. Find a really large painting and stand far away from it. Describe what you see. Now stand close to the painting (please remember to not touch), do you see something you missed before? Imagine you could hang it upside down, in what ways would this change the painting?
- 4 Pretend you are writing a letter to someone about your trip to the art museum. Pick your favorite work art and think of words to describe it.
- 5 “Art museum” starts with the letter “A”. Can you find things in the works of art that start with the letter “A”. Take your picture next to one of these paintings and post it to social media using the #TodayinAZ hashtag.

There's always a place for education.

Amazing things are happening in schools throughout Arizona, but learning doesn't just happen in the classroom. Simple everyday activities can be turned into opportunities to teach a child something new and wonderful and prepare them for success in school. On the other side of this sheet are ways you can support your child's literacy skills while you are here today.

Arizona is the proud home of many amazing arts and cultural venues, providing countless educational opportunities for kids and adults to learn together. Expect More Arizona has partnered with the following organizations across the state to show parents how to experience each venue with their children in rich and meaningful ways.

This program is made possible thanks to generous support from APS, our partner in the movement for world-class education for all children.
